Data Breach and Data Security Experience

CBP has positioned itself at the forefront of data breach and data security litigation, with an emphasis on advocacy for financial institution clients. Representative cases include:

In re: The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, 1:14-md-02583-TWT (N.D. Ga.): Appointed to the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee in an MDL class action brought on behalf of injured financial institutions in the wake of a massive retailer data breach. A settlement, with a common fund of $25 million and an additional fund of $2.25 million for distribution to financial institutions whose claims were purportedly released by third-party sponsors, was granted final approval on September 22, 2017.

In re: Target Corporation Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, 0:14-cmd-02522-PAM-JJK (D. Minn.): Counsel for the Lead Plaintiff, successfully representing Umpqua Bank and a class of financial institution plaintiffs over injuries suffered from one of the largest data breaches in history. A settlement, valued at $39.4 million, was granted final approval by the Court on May 12, 2016.

Michael Levine, et al. v. Sony Pictures Entertainment, Inc., 2:14-cv-09687-RGK-SH (C.D. Cal.): Co-Counsel in a class action resolved on behalf of current and former Sony employees whose personal information, along with that of their families, was compromised in a data breach. A settlement, establishing a non-reversionary cash fund of $2 million to reimburse class members for measures they took to prevent identity theft as a result of the breach and providing up to $2.5 million for class members who experienced losses due to identity theft or misuse of their personally identifying information, was granted final approval on April 6, 2016. The settlement provides for identity protection services for class members for a period of two years.

Ebarle, et al. v. LifeLock, Inc., 3:15-cv-00258 (N.D. Cal.): Co-Lead Counsel in a class action on behalf of customers of the identity theft protection service, arising from claims that LifeLock delivered false statements about its services, failed to alert customers on a timely basis of potential identity theft, and failed to safeguard data properly. A nationwide settlement of $81 million was granted final approval in September 2016.

Beyond bringing suit on behalf of those injured by inadequate data security practices, Carney Bates & Pulliam is actively involved in building broader relationships with law enforcement and victims' assistance groups working in the data security space. In August 2013, working in conjunction with the National Organization for Victim Assistance, the firm sponsored statewide cybersecurity training for Arkansas law enforcement and allied professionals, drawing attention to advanced criminal threats and risk mitigation strategies.

Data Privacy Experience

CBP has leadership roles in multiple, cutting-edge data privacy class actions. Representative cases include:

Matthew Campbell, et al. v. Facebook, Inc., 4:13-cv-05996-PJH (N.D. Cal.): Co-Lead Counsel in a class action involving allegations of email interception and violations of federal anti-wiretapping laws. Final approval of an injunctive relief settlement, securing disclosures and limitations on Facebook's interception and use of private message content, was granted on August 18, 2017.

Daniel Matera, et al. v. Google, Inc., 5:15-cv-04062-LHK (N.D. Cal.): Co-Lead Counsel in a class action involving allegations of email interception and violation of state and federal anti-wiretapping laws. A settlement, requiring Google to stop using content derived from email transmissions for user profiling and targeted advertising, was granted preliminary approval on August 31, 2017.
